

Screening Programmes in Derby and Derbyshire

Programme	Breast		Cervical		Bowel		Abdominal Aortic Aneurysm (AAA)
Uptake (3 years, approx.)	78% (92,440) screened 25,000 not screened		77% (200,420) screened 56,000 not screened		60% (99,040) screened 62,000 not screened		85% (18,740) screened 2870 not screened
Inequalities	Women in areas of deprivation Black and ethnic minority women		Women in areas of deprivation Women invited to their first screen Younger age groups		Men Black and ethnic minorities Younger age groups, especially first screen		Men in areas of deprivation Smokers
Incidence and Mortality (3 years), 2012-14
	Incidence	Mortality	Incidence	Mortality	Incidence	Mortality	Incidence	Mortality
	165 per 100,000 2696 new cases	36 per 100,000 592 deaths	11 per 100,000 167 new cases	3 per 100,000 46 deaths	69 per 100,000 2010 new cases	28 per 100,000 1668 deaths	25-78 per 100,000 238 new cases	40 per 100,000 155 deaths

All screening programmes performing to target, BUT rates of uptake are declining in some programmes and inequalities are an issue