

Derbyshire Citizens' Panel Results - February 2017

52% of respondents were male

82% of respondents are proud of Derbyshire

© Crown copyright and database rights [2017]. Ordnance Survey

69% of respondents are confident that recycling is turned into new materials

88% of respondents understand how they can reduce their rubbish and recycle more

45% of respondents feel informed about what happens to waste (non-recycling) when they throw it away

In the last 3 years

38% of respondents had switched electricity supplier

36% of respondents had switched gas supplier

65% of respondents had heard of the Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage Site

94% had visited an attraction/event within the World Heritage Site in the last 12 months

When asked about the key issues for the Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage site:

96% said supporting the local economy was most important

Encouraging research into the site and producing publications was least important

78% of respondents think Derbyshire is a safe place to live

When choosing an energy supplier respondents said:

good customer service was the most important factor

a proportion of profits going to local projects was the least important factor

73% said they were likely to switch to a Derbyshire County Council energy supply if it was cheaper than their current supplier